Stock Selling in London.

If it should happen—and it does often happen—that instead of settling on settling day, both buyer and seller (or bull and bear) prefer to carry over their accounts, stock exchange custom has provided for such a contingency. The bull pays interest on the money he owes, in the hope that the shares he has bought will rise. That is called "contango." When the bear, instead of handing over the shares he has sold, pays a price in the hope that they will fall in price, this is called "backwardation." These rates fluctuate with the state of the market. It being the interest of each party to raise or lower the rates, thus, says the "bull" game,

Sweetest 50c. neckwear that paigns and "bear campaigns" carried out with the object each has at heart. But after waiting and resorting to all the devices that the system knows of, even to "cornering" or "righting" the market, the price does not fall in the bear's case or rise in the case of the bull. There is nothing for it but to purchase or sell, and pay the difference; i.e., the speculator must close his accounts at a loss. The rate of "cornering" is as we may here explain, based on making-up or ontango day. If there are more "bulls" than "bears," the rate is high; if the other way round, there are more takers than givers of the stock the confirmation or "ontango" rate is low.—(The Strand.)

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.

CARRARA
DAINT

A black and white illustration showing a person from the side, wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants, sitting on a stool and painting another stool. The word 'PAINT' is written in large, bold, capital letters above the person. The background is filled with a pattern of small dots.

"The best is the cheapest."

"A little paint covers a multitude of sins," and "Carnara will cover more sins (square yards of space) than any other paint in the world. Furthermore, it will stand any climate, whether hot or cold, rainy or dry, and it just stands up to anything work as it is for outdoor work. It's smooth, and it's tough, which it retains to the very last. No other paint can possibly equal it. We furnish estimates and guarantee the work for five years when done by the contractors we recommend."

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Mayberg, Not Birkel.

It should be stated that J. Hannel Wood, clothing, will occupy the Mayberg store on South Spring street, instead of the Birkel store.

Junior Church.

A Junior church for boys and girls under the age of 15 has been organized with over fifty members at the East Side Congregational Church. The object is to let the boys and girls find membership in the larger church when they reach the age of 15.

Robbed by Mexican.

Julien Ariza was held up and robbed in front of his home, No. 817 Denver avenue, at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night. While one of the men held him the other grabbed his watch. Ariza described the high-walker as a well-built man, wearing a mustache.

Rock-Helmsford Debate.

The Progressive Club had another debate last evening—this time between Fred Rock and Arthur Helmsford, on the subject of Socialism. Rock handed his opponent a knockout argument, which Helmsford took good-naturedly.

Squad Concert.

The Lyric Quartet, under the direction of John Haas-Zuck, gave the first of a series of Sunday afternoon concerts yesterday afternoon at Simpson Auditorium. A good audience was present, and the numbers were excellently rendered.

Car Struck Woman.

Mrs. Annie Daniels, a colored woman, living at No. 664 San Fernando street, was struck by a street car near the Plaza yesterday evening while she was crossing Main street, and was thrown several feet to the pavement. The back of her scalp was cut, though not seriously.

Prospectus Indiana.

Dr. Stephen Bowers of No. 1132 Denver avenue has returned from Indiana, where he went to examine some wild lands for California parties. He traveled through various States and Territories, and delivered about thirty addresses. He found a widespread demand on the part of the people to come to California.

Broken Arm of Wild "Steer."

Tom Buckley, 9 years old, was playing in the yard of his home, No. 107 Soto street, yesterday morning with some other boys. One of the vagabonds reared Tom while he was playing, and the boy was thrown, and Tom came tumbling down. The fall broke both bones in his left forearm.

Rumage Sale.

For the benefit of their carpet fund the ladies of the First Methodist Episcopal Church have arranged for a "rummage sale" extraordinary. The vacant store building at Vignes and Turner streets will be utilized for the purpose. The sale will be held Tuesday and Wednesday—providing the stock in hand holds out.

Laney Memorial.

Memorial services were held yesterday at the local Salvation Army corps headquarters for Mrs. A. J. Laney, who died lately in Boise City, Idaho. Mrs. Laney had been a member of the work here at three different times, and was deservedly popular. An expression of sympathy was sent from the large audience to Mrs. Laney, who is left alone with five little ones, but who, nevertheless, will continue in his life work.

Reserved Seat Sales.

"Floradora," popular musical comedy, will appear at the Mason Opera-house the last three nights of the week, the company being headed by Isadore Rush. Mason and Haddon will present "Rudolph and the Red-Headed Boy" tomorrow night. Seat sales are now on for the box office. At the Union Pacific ticket office seat sales are also on for the Cotton and Noddy concerts, numbers of the Philharmonic course.

Baited Recused Boy.

Harry Mend, second mate of the lumber schooner Samar, lying at the Redondo wharf, rescued an eight-year-old boy from drowning at that place yesterday afternoon. The boy fell from the edge of the wharf between the piles and the schooner, and was perilously near to drowning. Mend plunged from the deck and soon had the little fellow's head above the water. The two were drawn up with ropes and the boy, after being revived, was little the worse for his bath.

Free "Speakers" Jailed.

D. P. Beardslee and James Dunson, the latter a negro, and the latter a white, were arrested yesterday by the City Jail yesterday. The pair was accompanied with tools no more formidable than their tongues. They are members of the Free Speech League, which explains everything. Beardslee and Dunson were arrested at the corner of First and Los Angeles streets yesterday forenoon. They were denouncing the "moral" ordinance, and the powers that be, when Patrolmen Cahill and Radcliffe snipped their oratorical buds and took the speakers to the Police Station. Both loudly declared that they would take their case to the Supreme Court. Beardslee procured $50 bail money and was released, but Dunson had to remain in durance vile, hoping, however, that the $500 fine levied by the judge to release the "martyrs" was still large enough to secure his liberty.

Two Burglars Arrested.

L. J. Hippe and Roy B. Cooper, the former a bartender and the latter a butcher, were arrested yesterday by Detectives Hawley and McKensie, charged with burglary. Cooper being an accessory after the fact. On the evening of September 28, Hippe climbed through a window into Mrs. Cora Pitts's room in the Joliet House at No. 123 East Third street, with Cooper's knowledge and connivance, and stole a purse containing $25.50 and a check for $1. The two young men, who were at the time roomers in the house, moved the next day, and enjoyed the fruits of Hippe's theft in royal meals. The returned a few days ago from Redondo, where they had gone for recreation, and being out of funds, Hippe forged Mrs. Pitts's name to the check. Both have confessed. Hippe will be prosecuted only for burglary, as the witnesses to prove the forgery are in Arizona. Hippe and Cooper arrived here recently from Aurora, Ill.

BREVITIES.

Real estate advertisers and others: Hereafter all real estate and other classified "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion must be in the Times office not later than 11 o'clock Saturday night in order to be properly classified. All advertisements received after this hour will be printed under a special heading of "Too late to classify." Special request is made of those telephoning "Listers" to do so before 10 p. m. each night.

Indian Blankets.

Indian blankets, made of regular prices Monday only. Campbell Curio Co., 329 S. Spring.

To Advertisers.

A special four-page supplement, showing some of the new advertising type faces just introduced by The Times, will be issued

Tuesdays for the inspection of advertisements.

A limited number will be printed, and copies may be had by application in person at the counter, or by mail. Idyllwild, Strawberry Valley, will be open for guests all the year round. Good family table, pleasant rooms, autumn and winter, furnished cottages for housekeeping. Daily stage. Address R. A. Lowe, manager, Idyllwild, Riverside county.

To Printers—The Times has for sale a number of fonts of display advertising type in fair condition. The type will be sold by the pound at very moderate prices. Apply at once, in person or by letter, at business office. Extra remodeled, L. Bonetti, 215 S. Broadway.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company for W. I. Somers, Joe Venturi, Mrs. Malcom Webster, Mrs. Olie Webster, M. E. K. Carroll, R. W. Lloyd, James Stanton, Mrs. A. W. Oliver, B. R. Whitney.

GEN. MILES PROJECTS GREAT OIL SYNDICATE.

ARMY'S FORMER CHIEF ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY.

Distinguished Visitor Has Been Observing and Investigating in Southwest, and is Said to be Engaged on Plan to Control Vast Oil Tracts.

Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A. (retired) arrived at Los Angeles yesterday evening, and took apartments at the Angelus. The distinguished visitor came from the East by easy stages via New Orleans, and will probably visit Indio, where he has land interests. He has been making brief stops through Arizona, he stated, enjoying observations as a private citizen, where formerly he saw hard service, noting with pleasure the progress and civilization of the country, its marvelous production of oil, its rich mineral resources, and its opportunities for profitable investment, having already invested some there.

The general will probably visit Nevada, Oregon and Washington, returning eastward via the northern route. A Chicago dispatch says Miles is now engaged in a project for the formation of a syndicate, which one of his associates says, will own and control more oil land than any other oil company in the world.

Gen. Miles was interested in Louisiana and Texas oil lands by ex-Gov. Hogg of Texas, and two months ago made an engagement with N. B. Bruck of the Bruck Solidified Oil Company of Boston to accompany him and Sir Thomas Lipton to the Gulf of Mexico.

Sir Thomas was taken ill at Chicago, but Mr. Bruck and Gen. Miles went on to the Gulf. Gen. Miles was determined to put his holdings into a $10,000,000 company, in which will be interested Gen. Miles, Gov. Hogg of Texas, and Sir Thomas Lipton. Mr. Bruck says it is the intention to form a syndicate, composed of the Miles company, the Hogg and Swaine syndicate, and some other big companies.

True Gallantry. Sir Walter Raleigh's chivalrous action of throwing his cloak on the ground for his Queen to step on is recalled by the story of a small boy's gallantry.

A little girl was standing one very cold morning in one of the poorer districts of Birmingham, waiting for a crowd of other poor children to gain admittance into a hall where a meal was to be given to them. It was bitterly cold, and the little girl shivered violently, and tried in vain to keep her bare feet warm.

A ragged little urchin who was standing near observed her, and taking off his cap and laying it on the ground, said, "Here, lassie, stand on my cap till the door opens."—[London V. C.]
